Overview:

Silicon Valley Clean Energy (SVCE) invites high school students to develop a short film to share their stories of a clean energy future and solutions to climate change (Submission). No previous climate change knowledge or film experience is needed to participate. More information can be found at svcleanenergy.org/empower-sv

Eligibility:

1. To be eligible, Participant must be a current high school student who either:
 - a. Attends school in the SVCE service territory (Campbell, Cupertino, Gilroy, Los Altos, Los Altos Hills, Los Gatos, Milpitas, Monte Sereno, Morgan Hill, Mountain View, Saratoga, Sunnyvale, or unincorporated Santa Clara County communities) OR
 - b. Is part of a household that receives electricity service from SVCE.
2. Participants may participate as individuals or in teams of up to 4 students.
3. Employees of SVCE and their immediate family members (children, domestic partner, parents, siblings and spouse) and others living in their household are not eligible to participate.
4. There is no entry fee or purchase necessary to participate.

Competition Rules:

1. The Submission must be no longer than four (4) minutes.
2. The Submission must be in a digital format (live action or animated).
3. The Submission shall not include copyrighted material of any kind, including, but not limited to, music, images, or videos.

4. The Submission must be Participant's own original, unpublished work.
5. No professional assistance is allowed.
6. Participants must abide by all local, state, and federal public health guidelines and restrictions while participating in the Competition.
7. Each Participant may only submit one Submission.
8. Participants are responsible for all costs associated with participation in the Competition.
9. A panel of judges will select scholarship winners. Scholarship amounts will be $3,000 for the top film in each of the following three award categories: Energy Impact, Energy Innovation, and Community Enthusiasm. Five Creative Presentation scholarships of $2,000 each will also be awarded. The scholarship amount will be equally divided between members of a winning team. Submissions will be judged on creativity and advancement of the Competition's purpose. All decisions of the judges are final. Recipients are responsible for any taxes associated with the scholarship and will be required to submit a W-9 prior to receiving the scholarship.
10. SVCE has no obligation to publish, promote, display or otherwise use any Submission.
11. Participation is on a voluntary basis and no compensation is promised.
12. Participant understands and agrees that they and their Submission may be subject to terms and conditions of the online platform that hosts the Submission and SVCE has no control over such terms and conditions.
13. Odds of winning a scholarship depend on the number and skill of Participants.
14. SVCE reserves the right to suspend, cancel or modify this Competition at any time and in any way, without prior notice.
15. This Competition is governed by the laws of California.
